

XM is a true alternative to commercial radio. The NAB wants to restrict the quality of broadcast choices to maintain a monopoly wherever it can. The consumer should be free to choose and receive whatever programming they want from the source of their choice.

Paul Tordella